Classic SURFACTANTS

Classic Distributing has been selling surfactants for 27 years! Classic has expanded our relationship with multiple manufacturers including The Chemlogics Group. They have been manufacturing a number of specialty surfactants for us over the years at their Los Angeles area manufacturing facility. This also allows us to control pricing and quality under our own brand. Now all of the high quality surfactants are made to our specifications to insure performance in the market place.

We will continue to offer all of the services you have grown to expect from Classic Distributing including formulation knowledge and proprietary blend formulation.

Global Supplier of Emerging and Unique Specialty Chemicals

JARCHEM is an ISO 9001:2000 company. They are the global source for acetate salts, alcohols, specialty lipids and specialty organic and inorganic chemicals. JARCHEM was founded in 1978 as a one product company, working from one small building in the industrial heartland of Newark, New Jersey. From its humble beginning, JARCHEM has grown into a chemical manufacturer, distributor and marketing company. Jarchem is now a strong source in Shea, Cocoa, Mango and Illipe Butters. They are also able to source Amazonian Oils and Actives. With many types, they are sure to find a butter/oil/active to fit your needs. Please inquire about their full color catalog.
